Ziegfeld's Greatest Musical Revue, "Follies of 1910," is the Next Attraction at this Theatre

F. Ziegfeld, Jr's revue, "The Follies of 1910," said to be the largest musical entertainment in the world, is the next attraction to be presented at this theatre. The new work is in three acts and thirteen brilliantly illuminated scenes. Harry B. Smith wrote the book, while Gus Edwards and numerous others, supplied the tuneful music. In the big organization there are over one hundred and fifty prominent entertainers. Besides a chorus described as seventy-five Anna Held girls, the long list of talent includes such popular and well-known players as Bickel and Watson and their band, Bert Williams, conceded to be the funniest person in the universe; Bobby North, Billie Reeves, Harry Pilcer, W. Wania, famous Russian dancer; Quigg and Nickerson, William C. Schrode, Peter Swift, Dudley Oatman, Max Schenck, Fannie Brice, Shirley Kellogg, Vera Maxwell, Margaret Morris, Evelyn Carlton, Pauline Wineman, Arline Boley, Florence Gardner, Fawn Conway, Lottie Vernon, Betty Neill, Bessie Fennell, and Miss Lillian Lorraine, the prettiest girl on the American stage.

AS DICKON

IN

"The Scarecrow"

A PLAY IN FOUR ACTS

By PERCY MACKAYE

NOTE:—In the preface to his play, published in which the author acknowledges fully his indebtedness to Nathaniel Hawthorne's fantastic sketch, "Feathertop," as the suggestion for this play, the following excerpt appears: "It would not be true to classify 'The Scarecrow' as a dramatization of 'Feathertop.' Hawthorne ends his narrative with an undeveloped aspect of his theme, which constitutes the starting point of the conception of my play; namely, the essential tragedy of the ludicrous . . . The scarecrow, Feathertop, is ridiculous as the emblem of a superficial fop; the scarecrow, Ravensbane, is pitiful as the emblem of human pathos."

"CLEANING" A WATCH

does not mean simply removing the "terra firma" from the works. It means to remove every piece that is detachable, cleanse it properly; then assemble and oil the watch.

Our method of cleaning watches is surpassed by no one. We take each part, pass it through chemicals, and then brush it by hand with specially prepared chalk.

As the watch is assembled it is lubricated with oil especially prepared for us. It comes from the jaw of the black porpoise, and is refined carefully and chilled at five degrees above zero; one-tenth of a drop will lubricate every bearing in the entire watch.

OUR oil lasts longer than the ordinary.

OUR cleaning lasts longer than the ordinary.

OUR guarantee is six months longer than the ordinary.

OUR prices are the same as any ordinary watchmaker's.

We pay strict attention to all the details of watch repairing.

Our system of regulating watches, free of charge, is exacting and also courteous.

We solicit your patronage and will guarantee satisfactory results.

THE POINT OF VIEW.

"She is a very clever woman."

"Is that so?"

"Yes, she can keep her husband at home evenings without resorting to any of the tricks suggester by the women's magazines."

INQUISITIVE.

"That's Mars," he said, as to the maid,
He pointed out the stars;
"Indeed?" she innocently purred,
"Now tell me which is Pa's."

DeFlatt—Is it true that you once bribed an officer of the law?

Suburb—You can call it a bribe if you want to. I gave a policeman $2 to induce our cook to stay.—Chicago News.

Customer—Are those eggs fresh?

New Grocer's Clerk—Can't say, miss. This is my first week here.

Kicker—Where is his residence?

Bocker—For voting, in New York; for divorce, in Dakota, and for good, in Europe.

Smith—At first he was simply crazy about her, but now he neglects her shamefully.

Jones—I see. At first he went out of his mind, and then she went out of his mind.

What is the difference between stabbing a man and killing a hog?

One is assaulting with intent to kill, and the other is killing with intent to salt.
